

Anastacia, One More Chance

Can we talk a while?
'Cause I need you
Lord, I miss your smile
Said, I need you
I know I'm not the same, ya see
If we could only be, the way it was Then I'd never let you go

Just one more chance
I know I was wrong
Don't give up so easily
Don't you know it's killing me?
Just one more chance, to sing this song
I'll never let you down, no
Just one more chance

I know that I hurt you
Don't you realise?
Confused, thought we were through
Can I tell you that I, I never felt like this?
This pain, I can't ignore
I want you back, and I'll never let you go

Just one more chance
I know I was wrong
Don't give up so easily
Don't you know it's killing me?
Just one more chance, to sing this song
I'll never let you down, no
Just one more chance

It's not the way we planned it
Or the way it's gonna be
Just give me half a chance to make your heart believe
'Cause I know just how you feel
I can see it in your eyes
There's nothing in this world
That can tear this love apart

Just one more chance
I know I was wrong
Don't give up so easily
Don't you know it's killing me?
Just one more chance, to sing this song
I'll never let you down, no, no, no
No no no

One more chance
Don't give up so easily
Don't you know, don't you know
It's killing me
To sing this song
I'll never let you down
Just one more chance

One more chance
