

Anathema, Dusk (Dark Is Descending)

Lift my mind to the light because I'm frozen
Lift my eyes to the sky because I'm searching

To feel like I want it to
To be like I want it to
Because I'm trying
My love
(x2)

Reach for my hand
And take me away

Away from this place
Because I know I don't belong here
Away from this place
I don't know, how did I get here?
My love
Away from this place
Because I know I don't belong here
My love
Speak to my heart
And take me away

Because I'm trying to be brave now
But I'm frozen in this place now
And it's so cold
(To feel like I want it to
To be like I want it to)
And the hopes I had forsaken
Were replaced with such an aching
Please take me home
(To feel like I want it to
To be like I want it to)
(x2)

I keep it all inside
Inside
Inside
Inside

Through the tears I watched you fly
You fly
You fly
Far away from me
Far away from me
Far away from me

And as the years went by,
I have found in time I smiled

I set my dreams alight
But I'll never forget you
I'll always live for you
Oh, my love

You fly
You're not far away from me
You're not far away from me
You're not far away from me
