

Anathema, Harmonium

feel free to comprehend what I see will never end it can't be now that life is gone it's too real to overcome

it's too real
it's too real

and these days my hands are tied these days I think you'll find I'm not me now a light has died it's too real to run and hide

I was floating in the water something tried to pull me under
something tried to pull me under
I was trying to live my life
it wouldn't let me
let me let me let me
I was trying to live my life
it wouldn't let me

what I see will never end

something tried to pull me under
something tried to pull me under
I was trying to live my life
it wouldn't let me
let me let me let me
I was trying to live my life
it wouldn't let me
let me let me let me
