

Anberlin, Breathe

This is surrender
To a wartorn life I've lived
Scars and stripes forever
In need of change I can't resist

No need to hide anything anymore
Can't return to who I was before

I can finally breathe
Suddenly alive
I can finally move
The world feels revived

This long of a struggle
Finally opened up my eyes
Revolution's not easy
With a civil war on the inside

No need to hide anything anymore
Can't return to who I was before

I can finally breathe
Suddenly alive
I can finally move
Cause I realize

I can finally breathe
Suddenly alive
I can finally move
The world feels revived

I can finally breathe
Suddenly alive
I can finally move
Cause I realize

I can finally breathe
Suddenly alive
I can finally move
The world feels revived

I can finally breathe
I can finally move
The world feels revived
