

Anberlin, The Feel Good Drug

"I'm here for you" she said
and we can stay for awhile,
my boyfriend's gone,
we can just pretend.

Lips that need no introduction
Now who's the greater sin,
Your drab eyes seem to invite (tell me darling) Where do we begin.
Was this over before
Before it ever began

Your kiss
Your calls
Your crutch
Like the devils got your hand
This was over before
Before it ever began

Your lips
Your lies
Your lust
Like the devils in your hands
Everyone in this town
is seeing somebody else
Everybody's tired of someone
our eyes wander for help
Prayers that need no answer now
I'm tired of who I am

You were my greatest mistake
I fell in love with your sin
Your littlest sin
Was this over before
Before it ever began

Your kiss
Your calls
Your crutch
Like the devils got your hand
This was over before
Before it ever began

Your lips
Your lies
Your lust
Like the devils in your hands
Failure is your disease
You want my outline drawn
You are my greatest failure
Discourse your saving song
Was this over before
Before it ever began

Your kiss
Your calls
Your crutch
This was over before
Before it ever began

Your lips
Your lies
Your lust
Like the devils in your hands
Was this over before
Before it ever began

Your kiss
Your calls
Your crutch
Like the devils got your hand
This was over before

Before it ever began
Your lips
Your lies
Your lust
Like the devils in your hands
