

Ancient, Beyond The Realms Of Insanity

[Music & Lyrics : Aphazel]

awakening in another realm in a distant time and place beyond the known world shrinking voices calling out to the neverending emptiness a shining figure is coming out of the sea of mist that now surrounds me reveals a woman pale yet blacker than the darkest night with eyes of diamonds piercing through my soul i'm your saving angel in black surrender to my force cause I am the only one who hold they keys to your mind the journey to the realm of the mentally dead begins in a twisted dimension where the sky is forever bleeding and the seas are burning with fury like a dragons wrath you're in the claws of death sucking out your every force your heart and soul have died you now belong to my realm beyond the realms of insanity she rules the realm of the raptured minds
