At The Stone Of Ancient Wisdom

I call onto thee, Father of Sin
Eyes glowing with the flames of Hell
Sulphur-fire burning within
I call onto thee, enslaver of light
I'm your servant, your tool and son
Accept my gift in this Cursed night
Father, I give you my blood
At the Stone of Ancient Wisdom
I give you my blood
I call onto thee, bringer of storms
Whom will consume the earth
Yet your Flame keeps me warm
I call onto thee, King of all Kings
Oh, Great Dragon, bring me Hell
Embrace me with your wings
:and blood kept on falling from the blackened sky, mixed with feathers and tears from all those who died
A kingdom once filled with joy and warmth, now forever buried beneath the shadow of our Horn-Crowned Master:
I call onto thee, Father of Sin
Eyes glowing with the flames of Hell
Sulphur-fire burning within
I call onto thee, enslaver of light
I'm your servant, your tool and son
Accept my gift in this Cursed night
Father, I give you my blood
At the Stone of Ancient Wisdom
I give you my blood
