And Oceans, Aquarium Of Children - Ajatusten M

Aquarium Of Children - Ajatusten Merenpinta
Like stones in silence I stand
As I draw circles in the sand
Naked under blue glass
Drowned I watch children dance
In a mind of an echo
(I know that I am I, if and only if I believe that I am I)
I float to the distance to eat the horizon
I cut the sunbeams the day before tomorrow
Tranceform the time to a silent history
Run under water in eternal serenity
...is it easy to run
to run under water?
...is it easy to paint
to paint without colors?
I float to the distance to eat the horizon
I cut the sunbeams the day before tomorrow
Tranceform the time to a silent history
Run under water in eternal serenity
(If i would've been the other I and if I would've wanted to be the other I then I could've been I)
...is it easy to run
to run under water?
...is it easy to paint
to paint without colors?
As an echo in the mind
