

And Oceans, Voyage: Lost Between Horizons: Eaten

Voyage: Lost Between Horizons: Eaten By The Distance

Time drips in passionate decay

Lost between eternities' scent

Sun burns brighter every day

Flaming fires like nails of torment

[Chorus:]

No place to crawl - no space to fall

A moment of clarity

Devoured by purity

Voices swallowed by hunger

As death shines brighter

All images drowned in eyes

Into light under melting skies

[Chorus]
