

And One, Enjoy The Unknown

my present to you
the sweetest tattoo
collapsing hearts in redest blue you will be scared by signs on your pillow he's not you man - no!

the poems i wrote revealing the code to my thoughts which help to note that i realized your deepest desire pick up the phone - enjoy the unknown

enjoy the unknown

your simle on tv means nothing to me cause you are all you could be i feel sorry 'bout the death of your pet!

always always
enjoy the unknown

always always
the end is near
we're dying here
always always
enjoy the unknown
creep around your window

enjoy the unknown

enjoy the unknown
always always
enjoy the unknown
always always
the end is near
we're dying here
enjoy the unknown

enjoy the unknown
