And Then I Turned Seven, I Need You

I can't get you outta my mind Cause i've been think 'bout your smile

And i've been thinking about your hands I've been thinking about your touch I've been thinking going crazy I've been thinking way to much I've been thinking about you and me How we work perfectly together And when our lips, they kiss It's just keeps feeling better

Hello there!
Good to see you, x4
How are you?
I need you..

I can't get you out of my mind 'Cause i've been thinking about your eyes

And I've been thinking abouit your lips I've been thinking about your kiss I've been thinking about your curves I've been thinking about your words I've been thinking about you and me And how perfectly we work together And when our hands close tight It's just keeps feeling better
