

Anders Johansson, It's Over

sitting here - starring at the wall the tv's on but i don't care at all so hard to breath - it's like i'm filled with fear caught up in thoughts of where to go from here chorus:

so now i'm off to anywhere - anywhere as long as it is far away from here there's nothing left here anyway - anyway no one's to blame - no more keeping score i'm out the door
it's over

i always thought that somehow we'd survive but in the end we both know this is right although it hurts we're better off alone cause what's the use in trying to hold on

bridge:

one day at a time
i know it will get easier i'm gathering what's mine
one day at a time

chorus (x2)

it's over.....
