

Anders Manga, Residual Fear

Hey, My Hate is spewing flames and melting every soul
Wait, Don't Break the massacre breeds deadly girls I know
The names of the scorned are written on a headless cross way down in hell
By the broken tombs that crumble are the ones that could never tell

This Residual Fear has Come To Bleed Beside You and Walk Behind You
This Residual Fear has Warned You That / One False Move and You're Blown Away

Take is Slow, Proceed with every caution on your own
Come Inside, Shed your skin and every fear you've known
The names of the scorned are written on a headless cross way down in hell / By the broken tombs

This Residual Fear has Come To Bleed Beside You and Walk Behind You
This Residual Fear has Warned You That / One False Move and You're Blown Away
