

Andi Deris, Come In From The Rain

Take my money, take my pride
Take my little peace of mind
It's alright
Lead me to a better life
Where I'm loved and where I'm wise
It's alright
Now I can see your signs of changes
I did not believe

Oh Lord
Let me come in from the rain
Never gonna be the same
Never gonna be that fool
I did not believe

If I just could turn back time
I would choose another prime for my life
Hear me praying for a chance
I lay my fate into your hands
And it's alright

Now I discern your signs of changes
I did not believe

Oh Lord
Let me come in from the rain
Never gonna be the same
Never gonna be that fool
Oh Lord
Let me come in from the rain
Never gonna lie again
Never wanna lie to you
I did not believe
