

Andi Deris, Could I Leave Forever?

Winter has come
And the snow at the window is
Gray as my mind
I'd want to just leave it all behind
Something is out there I need to find
Dark is the night
And the cold is my enemy I want to hide
But I ain't got no time to free
Sometimes tomorrow I 'll be free

Could I leave forever and a day?
I would look for a bay
And would there be forever lasting may?
I wouldn't chage a day

Life is a bitch
Too expensive to be your friend
I wanna fly
Far away where the winter ends
Lay down at the beach
And build castles with sand

Could I leave forever and a day?
I would look for a bay
And would there be forever lasting may?
I wouldn't change a day
