

Andrea Croonenberghs, All Of My Heart

Time's slowly passing by
Still keep on wondering: Why?
Tell me: Why do people die?
Why do I still cry?

Fighting the night away
Always myself and God to blame
I'll never ever understand
You're in heaven's land

All of my heart I'd give to find you
All of my heart I'd give to reach again
Heaven's so far when you aren't here
Heaven's so close when you are near

Who's gonna give me right here
One heart that's beating for me?
Mind's talking 'bout so many plans
It isn't in our hands

Some people never find
Keep on waiting for another sign
Won't this ever stop? Won't you disappear?
Won't you wipe away my tears?

All of my heart I'd give to find you
All of my heart I'd give to reach again
Heaven's so far when you aren't here
Heaven's so close when you are near

All of my heart I'd give to find you (all of my heart)
All of my heart I'd give to reach again
Heaven's so far when you aren't here (heaven's so far)
Heaven's so close when you are near (heaven's so close)

All of my heart I'd give to feel you
All of my heart)
Heaven's so far when you aren't here
Heaven's so close when you are near
