Andreas Johnson, Breathing

Ready for the night to sweep me all away

Ready for the streets to lead my feet a stray to my surprise

Everything is cool... when...

I'm not breathing

I hold my breath, I feel alive

Not breathing

All my pain is put aside...Not breathing

Ready for a breeze to blow right through my mind

Ready for a change to leave it all behind to my surprise

Everything is fine... when...

I'm not breathing

I hold my breath, I feel alive

Not breathing

All my pain is put aside...Not breathing

Ready for the sun to crash above my head

Ready for the moon to strike this body dead to my surprise

Everything is still... when...

I'm not breathing

I hold my breath, I feel alive

Not breathing

All my pain is put aside...Not breathing

I'm not breathing
