

Andreas Johnson, From Here To Anywhere

Just got out of Paris done my time by the Seine she said love lasts forever only fools dance in vain maybe I head out for London to do my share down the Thames sick and tired of you talking about your world in chains yeah!
Don't let them get to your head boy you ain't no good on your knees well I ain't bleeding for no one I ain't diggin' to please - and I won't back down, I won't back down I won't back down from where I came on a one track down Just go back to New York for a stroll down the Hudson what a nice place to be said the young and handsome well I ain't running to someone I ain't scared to see I'm just spending my time here and it ain't for free - and I won't back down
I won't back down
I won't back down from where I came on a one track down (I won't back down) she got out of Los Angeles did her time by the ocean (she said) you won't believe all the jerks there all so pretty in London so take me back to Paris for a walk down the Seine we could stay there forever we could dance thru this rain
I won't back down
I won't back down
I won't back down from where I came
on a one track down
I won't back down
I won't back down
I won't back down from where I came
on a one track down
I won't back down
I won't back down
