

Andreas Johnson, Make Me Beautiful

Let me introduce you
to my world at night
come wrap your arms around the dreams I hold inside and Ill bring you whatever you want whatever you need
whatever your heart desires you make me beautiful so beautiful you make me lose it all youre so beautiful to me wont you please seduce me with your grace and holy wine take me to your chambers release this heart if mine
whatever your heart requires
Let me introduce you
youre so beautiful
to me
lets bleed into the night vanish disappeared in lovers lust and cold desire drink the wine of our destiny and explode in glorious colours as daybreak wraps its arms around us
