

Andreas Johnson, Room Above The Sun

Here is our little house my friend a room above the sun is all we need
This is where I wanna stay within in a room above
I come to peace
Here is our little garden-love Here we breathe and live to stay inside
You can always come as you are You will never ever be denied
This is where I wanna lay right beside you I come down
This is all there is today
to you I will run
To my room above the sun
Here is our little castle
This is our private property
This is our little hideaway Just the way, the way you wanted it to be
This is where I wanna lay
right beside you I come down
This is all there is today
To you I will run
To my room above the sun
