

Andreas Johnson, The Sweetest Temptation

When my world comes together
When my heart is hold
Ill be light as a feather
When I reek in control
And I will shine, shine, shine for you
I will shine and sing my heart to you
I will shine, shine from the light in you
Ill be your sweetest temptation
When my rhythm is steady
And my compass reinstalled
Ill be yours, Ill be here ready
When I come knockin on your door
And I will shine, shine, shine for you
I will shine and sing my heart to you
I will shine, shine from the light in you
Ill be your sweetest temptation
When confession is honest
All the secrets revealed
Ill be brave, Ill be the strongest
When my faith is sealed (shine, shine, shine for you)
Ill be your sweetest temptation
The sweetest temptation
Ill be your sweetest temptation
Your sweetest temptation
Well I found myself in the strangest place with the strangest voice, the strangest face far below Gods holy ground
I lost myself to a fade of sound
And fallin in the same sad old song but for a while you made me feel so strong
When the poison got a hold on me
I lost my way to the one I need
My sweetest temptation
Youre my sweetest temptation
