Andreas Johnson, The Sweetest Temptation

When my world comes together When my heart is hold III be light as a feather When I reek in control And I will shine, shine, shine for you I will shine and sing my heart to you I will shine, shine from the light in you III be your sweetest temptation When my rhythm is steady And my compass reinstalled III be yours, III be here ready When I come knockin on your door And I will shine, shine, shine for you I will shine and sing my heart to you I will shine, shine from the light in you Ill be your sweetest temptation When confession is honest All the secrets revealed III be brave, III be the strongest When my faith is sealed (shine, shine, shine for you) Ill be your sweetest temptation The sweetest temptation III be your sweetest temptation Your sweetest temptation Well I found myself in the strangest place with the strangest voice, the strangest face far below Gods holy ground I lost myself to a fade of sound And fallin in the same sad old song but for a while you made me feel so strong When the poison got a hold on me I lost my way to the one I need My sweetest temptation Youre my sweetest temptation
