

Andres Cano, Stucked With You

I feel so cold tonight this coldness burns inside i wish that u could see how much your issues afect me

Its hard to take and harder to brake i am begging you stop the fucking fake

Walking around, just wasting time trying to find an answer to my why's My lifetime song just won't rhyme living between lies i am about to breakdown and cry

Then just in a while I realize you are not worth the time the love that i gave u was never a lie but i do regret giving you anything of what i call mine
