I'm not afraid of my mistakes
They made me who I really am
But never knew who heart me so
Is dark but I can see the light
No time to worry about the past
That why I scare to fall in love

My heart is broken
I don't wanna feel this pain again
I need to open my heart for real love

I don't regret all my mistakes
They made me who I am today
But why I scare of love again
Don't want to wake
Cause live is now to many lonely nights
I need to open up to you

My heart is broken
I don't wanna feel this pain again
I need to open my heart for real love
