Andrew Lloyd Webber, Waltz For Eva And Ch

Ch

Tell me before I waltz out of your life Before turning my back on the past Forgive my impertinent behaviour But how long do you think this pantomime can last?

Tell me before I ride off in the sunset There's one thing I never got clear How can you claim you're our saviour? When those who oppose you are stepped on, or cut up, or simply disappear

Eva:

Tell me before you get onto your bus Before joining the forgotten brigade How can one person like me, say Alter the time-honoured way the game is played

Tell me before you get onto your high horse
Just what you expect me to do?
I don't care what the bourgeoisie say
I'm not in business for them
But to give all my descamisados a magical moment or two

Eva & Dr: There is evil, ever around Fundamental system of government Quite incidental

Eva:

So what are my chances for honest advances, I'd say low Better to win by admitting my sin than to lose with a halo

Ch'

Tell me before I seek worthier pastures And thereby restore self-esteem How can you be so short-sighted To look never further than this week or next week To have no impossible dream

Eva:

Allow me to help you slink off to the sidelines
And mark your adieu with three cheers
But first tell me who'd be delighted
If I said I'd take on the world's greatest problems
From war to pollution, no hope of solution
Even if I lived for one hundred years

Eva & Dr: There is evil, ever around Fundamental system of government Quite incidental

Eva:

So go if you're able to somewhere unstable And stay there!
Whip up your hate in some tottering state But not here dear, Is that clear dear?

[Instrumental interlude]

Eva:

Oh, what I'd give for a hundred years But the physical interferes Every day more, oh my creator What is the good of the strongest heart In a body that's falling apart A serious flaw, I hope you know that
