

Andrew Peterson, Don't Give Up On Me

The road is long that leads me home tonight. It disappears into the distant light, my love. Don't give up on me. Got all these letters that I never did write, all this affection I kept inside my heart. Don't give up on me. Don't give up on me. I won't give up on you. You were there when I shook my head. It was howling like the wind at the Pentecost, and his love was teaching us a language we thought we couldn't learn. I walked beside you in the canyon flames, deep as an ocean and hot as a thousand suns. We bare our souls to each other. Don't give up on me. I won't give up on you.
