

Andrew Peterson, Invisible God

I give you praise, O Great Invisible God, for the moon in the space of a dark night, for the smile on
And oh, I long to see your face, Invisible, Invisible God. All the works that you have made are clear
And oh, I long to see your face, Invisible, Invisible God. All the works that you have made are clear