

Android Lust, Hole Solution

Did you stop to think
Is it making you a question
All of that you took for granted
All of those on whom you counted
Are you finally aware you shit head
It's the wake-up call you needed
I see you're moving on
I doubt you would be long

You need a hole in you head
I want to see it come oozing out
All your pride and your scheming
All your lies and deceiving
You need a hole in your head

You thought I'd quit and run
My tail tucked neatly away
I guess you failed to notice
Unlike your other prey
I've got a head I like to use
I'm not dazzled by your ruse
You'd better head on south
Put a muzzle on that mouth
