Android Lust, Lover Thine

He says I keep the faith in the only thing It gives me grief it gives me pain It's heaven and hell in one He believes the best has come and gone

He hides it in a special place His lover his life mate He says I do the best to keep you in my arms My money you're the only one

Down in the corner he sits on his hands Laughs in glee and delight at his plans To beg steal and borrow every penny that he can Fuck his dear mother if it gained him a grand

He's a well-respected man of means With a touch of slime in between His lips as words he weaves This wide-eyed fool already believes

Down in the corner he sits on his hands Laughs in glee does a happy little dance
