

Android Lust, Stained (occultechnologies)

i stand corrected guess it just wasn't meant to be i know i am maladjusted crush what's inside of me i know of no remedy
i know not how to cease this feeling of hate in me i just want to see you bleed i know what i want
i want to stop seeing red
i know what i want
i just want to see you dead i don't want your explanation i really couldn't care less i've got my own reminder this scar across my breast you are a faker anyway ever up for a quck release infect everyone around you cover up your own disease
