

Andru Donalds, Lovelight In Your Eyes

Everything I saw before you
It had no name
I was like a lonely wolf in this world
Until you came

And I had the feeling that my heart was without soul
I had the feeling that I'm losing my control

I'm dreaming 'bout the future
And the lovelight in your eyes
My feelings were in motion
But I stood blind to realize
That something has happened babe
And it was a change in our life

I need you, your devotion
And the lovelight in your eyes
It gives me so much power
And I'll never survive
My love...

Every time you are around me
I don't need this world
'cause you are my litany to heaven
And you are my soul

But I can remember times my heart was going low
And I can remember times I was losing my control

I'm dreaming 'bout the future
And the lovelight in your eyes
You gave me all your loving
I wish you always by my side

Yeah...

'cause you are my sunshine
And your smile is keeping me alive

I need you, your devotion
And the lovelight in your eyes
It gives me so much power
And I'll never survive
My love...

I'm dreaming 'bout the future
And the lovelight in your eyes
My feelings were in motion
But I stood blind to realize
That something has happened babe
And it was a change in our life

I need you, your devotion
And the lovelight in your eyes
It gives me so much power
And I'll never survive
My love...my love... hey hey

I'm dreaming, dreaming, dreaming of the lovelight
Dreaming, dreaming, dreaming of the lovelight
In your eyes

Oh yes, dreaming babe, dreaming baby
Of the lovelight in your eyes, oh, hey

Dreaming, I must be dreaming, dreaming of the lovelight
In your eyes

Can't stop dreaming... ohhh yeah
Dreaming of the lovelight, dreaming of the lovelight
Dreaming of the lovelight, baby baby baby baby baby

(fading) Say...Dream...dream...oh I'm dreaming of the lovelight
