Andru Donalds, Words, Unspoken

Baby forgive me
Everything I said wasn't what I felt
You know it ain't easy
Being just the same person every day
Inside I'm crying
But so many things were surrounding me
Thanks For a lifetime
Nothing can ever tear us apart

Now I'm here just to say what's unspoken
Now I'll tell you what is unsaid

Have I been dreaming
When I saw that life has sent me a sign
Now and forever
I will show that we are one of a kind
Now and forever
I can beleive I was wrong

Now I'm here just to say what's unspoken
Now I'll tell you what is unsaid
Everyday there's a truth unspoken
Let me show you the man that I am

Now I'm here just to say what's unspoken
Now I'll tell you what is unsaid
Everyday there's a truth unspoken
Let me show you the man that I am
