

Andy Abraham, Even If (Eurovision 2008)

You're keeping me fascinated
Know I'm runnin' all over town
I feel so intoxicated
I'm strugglin' to keep my feet on the ground
I'm not playin', girl
This ain't no game at all
And for the first time
I'm not looking for love
So come here, baby, listen to me
I just want ya to believe me
Even if the world stops lovin'
I could never stop lovin' you
Even if the sun stops risin'
I still wanna wake up with you
Yeah...
Even if my heart was breakin'
I could never break your heart too
Even if all words lost their meaning
You would understand I love you
Yes, I do
Your sensuality thrills me
It strips me to my soul
And so reality cures me
Your lovin' takes a hold
I'm barely in control
I'm not pretendin', girl
That ain't what's goin' on
There's no room for lies
Ain't no room at all
So come here, baby, listen to me
I just want ya to believe me
(Even if the world stops lovin')
I could never stop lovin' you
Even if the sun stops risin'
I still wanna wake up with you
Even if my heart was breaking
I could never break your heart too, no, no
Even if all words lost their meaning
You would understand I love you
Yes, I do
(Break it down, break it down)
(Girl, you gotta know) Yes, I do
(This time we'll break it down, break it down)
(This time we're through the floor) Hey yeah...
(Break it down, break it down)
(Girl, you gotta know) Help me break it down
(This time we'll break it down, break it down)
(This time we're through the floor) Ooh yeah...
(Even if the world stops lovin')
(I could never stop lovin' you) I could never stop lovin' you
(Even if the sun stops risin')
(I still wanna wake up with you) I will always wake up, baby
Even if my heart was breakin'
(I could never break your heart too) Aha, aha, aha baby, baby
Even if all words lost their meaning
You would understand I love you
