

Andy Abraham, Sticky Situation

I want you to want me
I want you to know it
But I can't show it
You have always been my everything
You've opened my heart
With the joy you've been bringing

Just give me a sign, baby
I promise you everyday, yeah

I'm gonna love you, girl
But it's a sticky situation
Girl, I'm tired of waiting
Please let the love begin
And won't you open up
And let me in

I want you to touch me
And kiss me over and over and over
Girl, I need you laying next to me
Whispering your sweet
Little something's to me

Just say you'll be mine, yeah.
I promise you everyday, yeah

I'm gonna love you, girl
But it's a sticky situation
Girl, I'm tired of waiting

Please let the love begin
And won't open up
And let me in

Will I ever get it right?
Come on, be a man and just say it
Okay, here it goes
I love you, baby
In the middle of the night
I toss and turn, it's crazy
I want ya
I need ya
I can't let you go

I'm gonna love you, girl
But it's a sticky situation
Girl, I'm tired of waiting
Please let the love begin
And won't open up
And let me in

Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
It's a sticky situation
Girl, I'm tired of waiting
Please let the love begin

Ooooo
