

Andy Burrows, Watch Me Fall Again

Who wants me now?
Come on, show me your colors
Show me your strength
Show me that you're willing
Show me you're able
Coz I will arrive in pieces
And I'll be in all the papers
And I'll be on all the walls, then watch me fall

So will you walk with me?
Please will you talk to me?
Because I'm your friend,
And you will see
That being your friend started to be enough

Who wants me now?
Cut me down the middle
Share me like a cake
Show me that you want me
Show me you're able
Coz I will arrive in pieces
And I'll be in all the papers
And I'll be on all the walls then watch me fall

So will you walk with me?
Please will you talk to me?
Because I'm your friend,
And you will see
That being your friend started to be enough

Watch me fall again /6x

So will you look at me?
Or what will you want from me?
Because I'm your friend,
And you will see
That being your friend started to be

Watch me fall again /6x
