

Andy Davis, Union & 3rd

I'll write the background music
I'll find a little melody that moves you
You can tell me stories of how they just don't make them like they used to
I look in your eyes
I see it tonight
You have the sweetest whisper
You have the sweetest way of being sad
I watch from a distance, and come up with a way to make you laugh
Yeah. I'm gonna try to kiss you goodbye
Your puttin' on your lipstick, and askin' me what color dress to wear
You're looking out your city window
How'd we ever find each other here?
Go with the withe
It's a beautiful night
Hello love
Hello my sweet love
Hello love
Hello my sweet love
Hello love
Hello my sweet love
Hello love
Hello my sweet love
