

Andy Gibb, Come Home For The Winter

(written by Andy Gibb)

Well , I've come home for the winter
I got tired of all the summers down in Denver , Denver
I got tired of all the music
Brought me down and then I'd lose it
And I never really made it
Oh but that don't really matter
I been thinking about you baby
And I know you think I'm crazy
But the sun is in our hearts
And I'm hoping we can start it all again

Oh my love , don't let down
Let me love again
And if I cry , don't walk away
Please release my chains

Oh you lovely golden city
Tell my lady that she's pretty
And I love her , love her
But that music started playin'
I recall you started sayin'
that it's getting so much darker
Oh but that don't really matter
I been thinkin' about you baby
And I know you think I'm crazy
But the sun is in our hearts
And I'm hopin' we can start it all again

And when the evenin's over
And the sunrise feels so hard
I guess I'll stop crying then
Oh boy , oh boy ,oh boy
So here I stand with nothing
A stranger in the dark
My heart is left exposed to pain , oh boy

We'll I've come home for the winter
I got tired of all the summers down in Denver , Denver
I got tired of all the music
Brought me down and then I'd lose it
And I never really made it
Oh but that don't really matter
I been thinkin' about you baby
And I know you think I'm crazy
But the sun is in our hearts
And I'm hoping we can start it all again

I been thinkin' about you baby
And I know you think I'm crazy
But the sun is in our hearts
And I'm hoping we can start it all again

(repeat last verse and fade out)
