

Andy Griggs, How Cool Is That

She's the last girl I thought I'd ever see here
But there stands the preacher's daughter holdin' a beer
A tattoo of an angel on the small of her back
How cool is that?
She probably don't remember me, it's been a long, long time
About then she turned around and kinda stared at me and smiled
She said, &quot;I had the hots for you in Sunday school class&quot;;
Now tell me how cool is that?
How cool is the hot sunlight
When the stars line up and everything feels just right
How cool when no-one's in sight
Well I'm the one she's lookin' at with that look in her eye
About then I asked if she was still seein' old what's his name
She said, &quot;Has it really been that long&quot;; No a lot of things have changed
She brushed her hair back and said, &quot;Let's not talk about the past&quot;;
How cool is that?
How cool is the hot sunlight
When the stars line up and everything feels just right
How cool when no-one's in sight
Well I'm the one she's lookin' at with that look in her eye
Yeah now how cool when no-one's in sight
Well I'm the one she's lookin' at with that look in her eye
She's the last girl I thought I'd ever see here
But there stands the preacher's daughter holdin' a beer