

Andy McCoy, Born Again Electric

Wellcome me back again ladies and gentelmen
I'm back new and so improved Playing the guitar and crank it out loud if Hendrix was my father he'd be real proud
I know it's never too loud Tell the girl I'm on the scam looking for someone to wham-bam-bam
I've been born
born again electric
It's a matter of faith rock 'n' roll is my bait at this rate, won't be long
'til we're all saved
I'm your hard rock saint Smashed my acoustic guitar right agains the wall to put my message straight Beatnik of Jesus screaming for Lord pleading gimme more
Born again electric
This time I won't be neglected
