

Andy McCoy, Love & Hate

Please don't ask me no questions
And I will tell you no lies How I wish all this shit inside would fade away so I try Try to make things Better around here
My heart is screaming
so loud and clear
I back my bags
And I'm out of here
And to the jungle I disappear
So deep down in the misery
Of dangerous things Well I've been there before and I will be there again
I wanna cry
I wanna die
Too much love and hate inside
I wanna give
I wanna take There's too much love and hate
Please don't ask me no questions
And you'll be spared all my lies so dark in the freeway of life I'm confused don't know wrong from right
So please don't hesitate to pick your part
In this theatre of hate Too many lies
Tell me what's right Honey please come be my guide
