

Andy Williams, Don't You Believe It

If you should hear that someone new
Has eased the pain of losing you
Don't you believe it, not for a moment?
Don't you believe it because it isn't true?
Those angry words that made us part
Put out the flame that's in my heart
Don't you believe it, not for a moment?
Don't you believe it because it isn't true?
I haven't changed, I still love you
And it will always be
I only hope and I pray each night
You'll feel the same about me
So if you hear some false alarms
Like you're not welcome in my arms
Don't you believe it, not for a moment?
Don't you believe it because it isn't true?
Oh, how I still love you
