

Andy Williams, I've Grown Accustomed To Her Face

Andy Williams

Words and Music by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe

from the Broadway musical "My Fair Lady";

70 hit for Rosemary Clooney (as "YOUR Face") in 1956

I've grown accustomed to her face
She almost makes the day begin
I've grown accustomed to the tune she whistles night and noon
Her smiles, her frowns, her ups, her downs

Are second nature to me now
Like breathing out and breathing in
I was serenely independent and content before we met
Surely I could always be that way again and yet
I've grown accustomed to her looks, accustomed to her voice
Accustomed to her face

I'm very grateful she's a woman and so easy to forget
Rather like a habit one can always break and yet
I've grown accustomed to the trace of something in the air
Accustomed to her face
