

Ane Brun, Drowning In Those Eyes

Its like you're standing on my chest
Looking down, Looking down
Its like you're standing on my chest
Looking down, Looking down

With your eyes at me, at me
I am drowning in those eyes, I am drowning in those eyes
I am drowning in those eyes

I can't breathe, all you are,
I cant breathe, with you on top of me,

Its like you are standing on my chest
Looking down, Looking down
With your eyes at me, at me

I am drowning in those eyes, I am drowning in those eyes
I am drowning in those eyes
I am drowning in those eyes, I am drowning in those eyes
I am drowning in those eyes
