

Ane Brun, So You Did It Again

So you did it again
I guess you've done this before
You lay all your time and money
On the fuckin' wrong horse

So you did it again
I guess you've been here before
A little kissin' and a lovin'
And your best judgement
Just lying on the floor
Just lying on the floor

So you did it once more
I guess you closed your eyes
Your heartbeat ringin' in your ears
Your fingers through his hair
Oh why oh why oh why
Oh why oh why yeah
