

Anekdoten, For Someone

For Someone

wayworn souls - we've been drifting through space for so long moving on - but never quite sure of where we should go all as one - at the glass gazing out in the blue we who've been waiting too long

stars all around but we never found a fire burning as strong no we never found a fire burning as strong no we never found a fire
