

Anekdoten, Nucleus

awaken - I am reborn - seeing - calling - roll away the stone - rising pacing through the ashes, holding fast the rope finally believing in love and life and hope beauty - sky, earth and moon - always moving - beating in tune - turning around... reaching - drawn to the light - wanting - shooting into the night - glowing getting ever deeper, closer to the core the purpose and the meaning, the essence of it all!
