Anette Olzon, Lies

housand lights passing by Stories floating around Silence is long gone by now All the wishes we had Dreams that we shared

I remember the time Closing down open doors Making fences grow strong Burning the plants that had grown Deep inside from the time when love was our life Now it's goodbye

All of the lies just passing us by I'm holding to keep it inside Why no wrong can't be right All the wonders are gone No more flowers will fall tonight All of the lies just passing us by

Threads of life going by Precious moments run by Tossing and turning our minds All the magic is gone No more feelings of hope

Will we ever forgive
Will the wounds start to heal
I'm tired of pushing the day
Putting down all behind moving away

All of the lies just passing us by I'm holding to keep it in sight Why no wrong can't be right All the wonders are gone No more flowers will fall tonight All that is gone just passing us by

Lies just passing us by I'm holding to keep it in sight Why no wrong can't be right All the wonders are gone No more flowers will fall tonight All that is gone just passing us by
