Angel Corpse, Reap the Whirlwind

[Music Palubicki; Lyrics Helmkamp]

In the dancing blaze of world cremation Ashes usurp the thrones of untruth In the glowing funeral pyres Where shadows and smoke no longer betray Furnace fired - matter laid bare The true nature of existence

Reap the whirlwind Mercifully engulf the current universe Reap... Reap the whirlwind

Unfetter a seedling chaos to spawn Strip away the artificial mantle The veneer that pompously claims That this world is worthy of salvation Self satisfaction - armageddon For that is all we can ask for

[Chorus]

Every leader a fool with a facade Every holy man a sinner Every love a selfish lust Every war an orgy of laughter Every living creature a cancer A defilement - this flesh corrupts

Reap...

All truth is fabrication
Almighty hallowed nothingness
All paths spiral downwards
All answers winged lies
All questions should be phrased with axes
Indulge celebrations enshrined in blood

Astride the inexorable Jericho's wall shall crumble divine Grasp the horns of the Dragons of Chaos Furious we ride...

[Chorus]
