Angel Dust, Liquid Angel

Once again the pictures disarray No more empty words that go astray Paralize I step into the stream Hoping all my lies will follow me

I feel the dawn rise in me The light disappears I start to regret I can't breake these chains I die to live again

Ever so I try to turn arround Electrifying voices tie me down My senses are erased I'm breathing in the flames The termination has begun I cannot break these chains

[Chorus]
