

Angel Dust, The Cultman

Come and rise from your grave again
Rise above them and fight again
I'm the one you're calling
And watch me - show them all
Without me you'll be obscene
I'll save you from it all

Release your confessions
Give your life to me
Let me open your sewn shut eyes
See only me
I'm the one you're calling
And watch me - show them all
Obey me until your life is lost

Come to me with sorrow
I'll let you live again
There is no tomorrow
I am your only friend
Your time has been so sick
You're living in sorrow and pain
There is no tomorrow - take my hand

What is it inside you eating you within?
I drown in life's waters
A sea of despair
Hear me now I'm calling
So you can see the way to me
I'll leave you blind and hopeless
You should have never listened to me

Come to me with sorrow
I'll let you live again
There is no tomorrow
I am your only friend
Your time has been so sick
You're living in sorrow and pain
There is no tomorrow - take my hand

I'm the one you're calling
And watch me - show them all
Without me you'll be obscene
I'll save you from it all
Release your confessions
Give your life to me
Let me open your sewn shut eyes
See only me again
